

Just in Time: Benefits & Employment 12-Hour Training

Just in time...a training that provides essential information about employment and benefits! Employment Resources, Inc. (ERI) provides customized employment and benefits counseling related trainings for organizations such as community service providers, human service professionals, disability advocates, and government agencies.

ERI's 12 Hour Just in Time Training is customized to meet the training needs of your staff or group. We will help you to design your 12 hours! Potential training components include:

Social Security Administration:

SSDI
SSI
Work Incentives for both SSDI and SSI
Self-employment and benefits
Application process
Representative Payee process
Continuing Disability Reviews process
Appeals process
Overpayment process

Other State of Wisconsin and federal programs:

State Supplemental Security Income
Energy Assistance
FoodShare
Public Housing

Medicare:

Parts A, B, C, and D

Medical Assistance:

Categorically needy
Medically needy
Special status
MAPP
Buy-in programs
Long Term Care

Other medical programs:

HIPAA
HIRSP
COBRA

What Participants Will Learn:

- Ways to access information and resources related to employment and benefits for individuals with disabilities.
- Understand who to refer an individual to for more information.
- Learn more about how programs interact.
- Learn more about how working will affect benefits.

Cost:

- The cost for this training is $250 per person.
- The training can be held at your location or in your area. Meeting location fees are not included.
- ERI has meeting space available for up to 20 people.

email us at eri@eri-wi.org

call Megan at 608-246-3444 x230

visit our website at www.eri-wi.org/Training.htm