

Leadership Development Series

Mobilizing for Employment

RECOMMENDATION FORM

Completed by: _____

Completed For: _____

How do you know this person? _____

Mobilizing for Employment is a leadership development initiative that will combine the principles of person-centered planning and community building with leadership development. This initiative will help participants learn how to help people with disabilities achieve integrated employment in their community. We are looking for participants who have the qualities of a community builder as well as strong leadership skills. Please complete the following information and email your recommendation to Jenny Neugart at Jennifer.neugart@wisconsin.gov

Share a story about how this applicant has used community building to improve their community/ agency/school/etc.

How has this person demonstrated leadership? Please be specific.

How do you think other people in the community would describe this person?