

Work Incentives Benefit Specialists WIBSRegistry

Wisconsin Work Incentives Benefits Specialists (WIBS) help individuals with disabilities, families, and professionals make sense of highly complex employment and benefit related issues.

Due to the highly complex and confidential nature of the information provided, continuing education and peer support is crucial for professionals to maintain the high level of competence required to help individuals make informed choices. Every day, WIBS provide information that can change a person's life. Incorrect information can have a devastating effect on the quality of a person's life.

Wisconsin Work Incentives Benefits Specialists (WIBS) are invited to join the Wisconsin WIBS Registry. Registry members are WIBS who agree to maintain a prescribed level of training, adopt a code of conduct, and participate in a peer review process.

Accountability of the WIBS profession is expressed through a set of core values. These values represent a field that is continually evolving, yet is firmly based in providing quality information in a consistent, ethical context.
